Thanks A sincere thank you to all who attended the mass and celebrations in our parish on last Saturday evening to honour and celebrate volunteerism in our parish. The spirit of volunteerism has been and is very central to the life of Clarecastle parish and community and the generous sharing of time, skills, and resources by so many people makes this community what it is. It was especially significant that we celebrate at this time as we remember the trojan work undertaken and completed in the renovation of our parish church 30 years ago. Thanks to all who have been involved in the life of our parish over the years and especially to the wonderful committee who organised Saturday's celebrations. Thanks to all who contribute financially to our parish and whose contributions enable our church to be the beautiful building that it is, a building worthy to be called the "House of God".

R.T.E. Mass RTE/television will televise Mass from Clarecastle church on Sunday, 7th August at 11a.m. The Mass is an honour for our parish as RTE broadcast about five Sunday Masses outside of the studio in Dublin in the course of the year. The mass is a tribute to the Youth Choir Clarecastle/Ballyea, which began in Ballyea earlier this year and which has attracted the attention of RTE. It also is a tribute to the Day Care Centre in Clarecastle with whom the young people in the choir have a special affection. Between now and August there will be many preparations to be completed before the televised Mass on RTE 1. It is important that as many of the Clarecastle/Ballyea community be present at the Mass on the day. As we are bringing the Mass into the homes of the sick and housebound we need to have the congregation attending the Mass to be as large as possible. Please come to the Mass and tape and view it later if you wish. To facilitate the Mass it is necessary to make some changes to the Mass schedule for that weekend. The following is proposed:

Mass Saturday 6th August – Ballyea 8p.m.

Mass Sunday 7th August – Clarecastle 9a.m & 11a.m.

There will be no evening Mass in Clarecastle on Saturday 6th August as RTE will be involved in preparations with those who are involved with choir, readings etc. in the televised Mass. On Sunday there will be NO 10.30a.m. Mass in Ballyea and the 12noon Mass in Clarecastle will be moved to 11a.m. as that is the time Mass is broadcast on RTE. We thank you for your co-operation in this great honour for our parish community.
