Clarecastle Community Development's Playground Committee is raising funds for a new ability whirl which is essentially a roundabout that can be used by all children including those in a wheelchair. Some grant funding has been obtained from the Department of Youth and Children's Affairs but a significant community input is required to enable the purchase of the equipment. If anyone would like to donate toward this cause they can do so through Clarecastle Post Office, special collection boxes in the main shops in the village or online via www.idonate.ie - Clarecastle Playground Inclusive Equipment. Many thanks for your support.

Doora Charity Tractor Run will take place on Sun. 30th Oct. at 12noon. Proceeds go to Clarecastle Day Care Centre & The Jack and Jill Foundation! Registration from 11am at The Shibeen Pub, Doora. This year will also feature Children's tractor race & bouncy castle! Please support!
