First Friday: 4th November Mass in Clarecastle at 10am & 7p.m. & in Ballyea at 8p.m.

Haiti Disaster Appeal: We express our sincere gratitude to all who contributed to the Haiti disaster fund, special collection taken up as a retiring collection last weekend. People were very generous in their contributions and we say Thank You for your generosity. The plight of the people of Haiti is very tragic, and the money you have contributed which has been forwarded for dispersal to Trócaire was €5,617.05. The parish rounded this amount up to €6,000.00. Mile Buiochas.

Matt Talbot Novena continues this Tuesday evening, 1st Nov. at 7p.m in SS. John & Paul Church, Shannon. This week's preacher is Mgr. Ken McCaffrey, Dundee, Scotland.

All Saints & All Souls Tuesday next 1st November is the feast of All Saints. This feast reminds us of all those people who lived their lives to the best of their ability in accordance with the teaching of Jesus Christ. Some of these we know from the Churches Official list of the Saints and today the Saints we remember include the many good people we have known ourselves who now are rejoicing in the presence of God.

Mass in Clarecastle: 10a.m. & 7p.m. / Ballyea: 11a.m. & 8p.m.

Feast of All Souls – Wednesday, 2nd is a very significant day on which we remember the dead. Masses for the feastday: Clarecastle – 10a.m. & 7p.m. & Ballyea 8p.m.

Masses for the Holy Souls November is the month in which we remember all our dead, especially those who have died during the year. Please return your Holy Souls envelopes with the names of the dead you wish to be included in Masses during the month of November. You can use your own envelope, the one in the yearly pack or the envelopes that are at the Church doors to do this.

Clarecastle / Ballyea Bereavement Support Group Masses to remember our dead and especially our loved ones who died during the year will be held on the following evenings:

Friday 18th November – Ballyea Church at 8p.m.

Wednesday, 23rd – Clarecastle Church at 7p.m.

University Maternity Hospital Limerick annual remembrance service at the Church of the Holy Rosary, Ennis Road, Limerick, on Sunday, 13th Nov. at 3pm. We invite parents who have experienced the death of their baby/pregnancy loss at any stage, together with their family, friends and hospital staff to this service.

November Masses for the Dead To offer people an opportunity to remember and to pray for the dead, we offer an opportunity to do so, by scheduling evening Masses on two evenings each week. These Mass times will be; Wednesday: Clarecastle @ 7p.m. & Ballyea @ 8p.m. & Friday: Clarecastle @ 7p.m. & Ballyea @ 8p.m.

If people are not interested in this provision and if the attendance is small, we may cancel these Masses as the month progresses.

Clarecastle GAA is actively looking for volunteers for 2017. Application forms can be found at the church doors or you can text your details to 087 2788561 or email chairmanccgaa@gmail.com.

Mission Sunday Collection Thanks to all who contributed so generously to the Mission collection recently. The collection is still open for those who wish to make a donation.

Live the Word: Sometimes Life is less than perfect.

It can be busy, stressful and full time go.

It is important to remember that when we learn to find balance amongst the chaos. Embrace the mess of Life and learn that not everything has to be perfect or exactly so.

Don't forget to put your clocks back 1 hour on Saturday night.
