Sincere Thanks to everyone in Clarecastle & Ballyea for your generosity in supporting the appeal for the Foreign Missions with donating old spectacles, used stamps, old rosary beads and holy Christmas cards. This is a great opportunity to help the poor of the 3rd World. We will continue to collect the above items for a few more weeks.

St. Vincent De Paul - Clarecastle Conference wishes to thank the parishioners of Clarecastle and Ballyea for their most generous contribution to their Annual Church Gate Collection in December. A total of €3,703 was collected. This enabled us to help families in both areas during Christmas and into the New Year. Your continued support is greatly appreciated.

Mass Time Changes: We draw your attention to the sheet, which is available at each entrance door, outlining the changes to the Mass schedule in our parish effective from Saturday, 27th January '18. We thank all who participated in the decision making process and pray that we will continue to be a vibrant Christian community.
