Feast of All Saints & All Souls Thursday next 1st November is the feast of All Saints. This feast reminds us of all those people who lived their lives to the best of their ability in accordance with the teaching of Jesus Christ. Some of the Saints we know from the official list of the saints and today the saints we remember are people we have known ourselves who are now enjoying the presence of God. They are the ones who as St. John describes them, those who really “See God as he really is”. Mass Times for Feast of All Saints: Ballyea: Wednesday (31st Oct.) at 8p.m.

Clarecastle: Thursday 1st Nov. at 10am & 7pm

Feast of All Souls: Friday, 2nd Nov. is the Feast of All Souls, it is also the First Friday of the month. It is a very significant day on which we remember all the dead. Mass times for Friday, 2nd November; Clarecastle 10am & 7pm & Ballyea 8pm.

Clarecastle/Ballyea Bereavement Support Group: Masses to remember our dead and especially our loved ones who died during the year will be held on the following evenings;

Masses for Holy Souls: November is the month in which we remember all our dead, especially those who have died during the year. Please return your Holy Souls envelopes with the names of the dead you wish to be included in Masses during the month of November. You can use your own envelope to include the names of those you wish to remember and your offering, or the envelope in your yearly pack, or use one of the envelopes that are at the Church doors for this purpose.

Evening Masses in November: In order to remember our dead during the month of November, there will be an evening Mass in Ballyea on Wednesday evenings at 8p.m. and an evening mass in Clarecastle on Friday evenings at 7p.m.
