Mission Collection

The annual collection in aid of the Missions is being taken up at all masses in our parish this weekend. The theme for Mission Sunday this year, which we will celebrate on Sunday 24th October is “We cannot remain silent – we cannot but speak of what we have seen and heard.” Acts 4:20. This theme has been chosen by Pope Francis who appeals to us for our compassion and generosity in our outreach to all Missionaries. Nearly all of us personally know a missionary or a number of missionaries and it is for them and their colleagues this collection is taken up. It is to support Irish Missionaries abroad involved in everyday pastoral care of people and missionary activity in 1,100 dioceses throughout the world, mostly in Africa, Asia, and Latin America, many of these places are ravaged by poverty, conflict and insecurity. Whatever support you can give to this collection in aid of our Irish front line missionaries will be gratefully appreciated. Please use the yellow envelope in your yearly pack, an envelope of your own, or the donate button on the parish website to make your contribution. Many thanks for your generosity

Congratulations

A word of congratulations to all the young people in our parish community who received the Sacraments of First Holy Communion and Confirmation in beautiful ceremonies attended by members of their families recently. We know these are very special days for our young people and we hope they enjoyed their day. Thanks to all parents/guardians, friends and teachers who prepared them for the day. Thanks too, to the music ministers who added enormously to the liturgical celebrations. We pray God’s blessings on all and wish you every joy and happiness in your journey through life. We look forward to regularly meeting you in our Eucharistic and liturgical celebrations.
